ORDER

Of the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal

Constituted under the Solicitors Act 1974

---

The Tribunal makes an Order pursuant to Rule 35 (9) of the Solicitors (Disciplinary Rules) 2019.

Anonymity Order

The Tribunal orders that the identity of the individuals named in the proceedings and referred to in the Tribunal's written judgment as set out below shall not be disclosed or published:

Client A: Mr Singh

Mr B: Mr P Singh

Client C: Mr Edward Sula

Mrs D: Mrs G Sandher

Co-Trustee: Mr R Singh

Company X: Black Pearl Limited

Company Y: Silver Power Limited

Company Z: Silver Power Systems Ltd (now Gridserve Technologies Ltd)

The Tribunal grants leave that the anonymisation schedule be amended and further orders that Silver Penny PVT Limited (previously known as Black Pearl (UK) Limited) shall be referred to as Company Q.

Accordingly, the Tribunal directs that no person shall publish or disclose any matter likely to lead to the identification of Client A, Mr B, Client C, Mrs D, Co-Trustee, Company Q, Company X, Company Y and Company Z.

For the avoidance of doubt:

1. The individuals shall be referred to as Client A, Mr B, Client C, Mrs D, Co-Trustee, Company Q, Company X, Company Y and Company Z in the published judgment and any other publicly available case-related material.
2. Any recording or transcript of the hearing supplied by or on behalf of the Tribunal shall be provided subject to this order, and recipients must not publish or disclose any part of that material that would identify Client A, Mr B, Client C, Mrs D, Co-Trustee, Company Q, Company X, Company Y and Company Z.

This direction shall remain in force unless varied or revoked by the Tribunal.
