

SOLICITORS DISCIPLINARY TRIBUNAL

IN THE MATTER OF THE SOLICITORS ACT 1974

Case No. 12874-2025

BETWEEN:

SOLICITORS REGULATION AUTHORITY LTD

Applicant

and

JASPAL SINGH

Respondent

ORDER

Under Rule 35(9), Solicitors (Disciplinary Proceedings) Rules 2019

The Applicant has identified two persons in the Anonymity Schedule appended to its Rule 12 Statement dated 27 November 2025 as Person A and Person B;

By an application dated 27 August 2026, the Applicant sought anonymity in respect of Person A;

The Respondent's representative, by email dated 2 September 2026, did not oppose anonymity in respect of Person A;

The Tribunal has considered the question of anonymity in respect of Person A and Person B;

The Tribunal is satisfied that the restrictions imposed by this Order are necessary and proportionate and do not, subject to any further order, prevent the substantive hearing from taking place in public or the Tribunal's decision from being published;

The Tribunal therefore ORDERS:

1. The people protected by this Order are those whose names are set out in the Anonymity Schedule to the Rule 12 Statement. In these proceedings, they shall be referred to only as Person A and Person B.

2. The parties shall use those designations in every document, bundle, submission and item of evidence, and in all oral submissions and evidence.
3. No person shall disclose or publish, in connection with these proceedings, any name or other information that is likely, whether by itself or together with other information, to identify Person A or Person B.
4. The Tribunal shall use the same designations in any order, decision or other document that it publishes or issues.
5. The Anonymity Schedule shall be provided only to the parties and retained by the Tribunal. It shall not be published. The Anonymity Schedule, and any document that identifies a protected person otherwise than as Person A or Person B, shall be marked “CONFIDENTIAL — NOT FOR PUBLICATION”.
6. Each party shall ensure, before filing or serving any document, that it complies with this Order. Any document already filed, served or uploaded to Caselines that does not comply shall be replaced with a compliant version within seven days of the date of this Order.
7. This Order shall remain in force until varied or revoked by a further order of the Tribunal. The Tribunal shall review the continuation and terms of this Order at the conclusion of the substantive proceedings.
8. Any party may apply to the Tribunal, on notice to the other party, to vary or discharge this Order. Any other person directly affected by this Order may apply in writing to the Chief Clerk to vary or discharge it. The Tribunal shall not determine any such application without the parties having had a reasonable opportunity to make representations.
9. A person who becomes aware of an actual or anticipated breach of this Order must immediately notify the Tribunal and the other party in writing. Where the person responsible for a breach is regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority, the matter may be reported to the SRA.

Dated this 4th day of September 2026
